THE TRIBUNE.
IN UNION THERE IS STRENGTH.
DANVILLE, KY.
Friday Morning, Oct. 8, 1852.

Whig Ticket for 1852!
FOR PRESIDENT,
GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
HON. WM. A. GRAHAM,
OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHIG ELECTORS.
FOR THE STATE AT LARGE:
JOSHUA F. BELL, of Boyle.
C. S. MORRHEAD, of Franklin.
DISTRICT ELECTORS:
1st. Lucian Anderson, of Graves.
2d. John S. McFarland, of Danville.
3d. John G. Gentry, of Patton.
4th. John E. Bramlette, of Adair.
5th. John L. Helm, of Harlan.
6th. Curtis F. Barham, of Madison.
7th. John Rodman, of Oldham.
8th. Thos. F. Marshall, of Woodford.
9th. Leander M. Cox, of Fleming.
10th. T. B. Stevenson, of Mason.

Our Senior has been confined to his bed during nearly the whole of the past week, and, consequently, we have not had time to give proper attention to our paper. He is improving now, however, and we hope he will be able to be at his post again in a few days.

Owing to our failure to receive a supply of paper we had ordered, in time for this week's issue, we are compelled to send a half sheet to some of our subscribers. We beg their pardon for it, and know they will grant it, as this is only the second time in nearly ten years that we have had to serve them in such a manner.

Mr. H. B. Rhoton, of St. Louis, (formerly of this place,) will accept our thanks for late city papers.

Capt. J. M. Chenoweth, of the steamer J. S. Chenoweth, has our thanks for a package of New Orleans papers.

MAMMOTH POTATOES.—Mr. JOHN D. TERRELL, of this place, sent us a few days ago, two Sweet Potatoes, one weighing 4½, and the other 4½ pounds. We think it somewhat better than the growers of large potatoes to beat this weight.

WING MASS MEETING.—The Whigs of Mercer will hold a grand Mass Meeting at Harrodsburg, on Monday next. They have their brother Whigs from every section to join them on that day. Many distinguished speakers are expected to be present.

THE BELL RINGERS.—Many of our citizens will be glad to learn that the Swiss Bell Ringers have consented to give another of their entertainments in our city. Their exhibition is by far the most novel and interesting we have ever witnessed, and those who fail to attend, will not shortly cause to regret it. The ingenuity and skill with which they handle their bells, producing the sweetest music, and all in perfect time, is really one of the greatest curiosities of the age. The wood and straw instrument, with such a jaw-breaking name, is also a very attractive feature to the entertainment. They perform this (Friday) evening, at Franklin Hall, and we advise everybody to go.

We have lately very frequently failed to receive the Louisville Daily Courier when due. We can't get along well without it.

We publish in another column a letter from Messrs. Bledsoe and Alexander, of Burkesville, containing some very interesting information gathered during a visit to Tennessee, concerning the South-western Railroad. The Tennesseans are doing their duty nobly.

We regret that we did not receive the letter in time to give notice of the meeting at the Tennessee line on the 21st inst. We will publish the full proceedings of that meeting as soon as they are received.

HEALTH OF HON. ARCHIBALD DIXON.—Capt. Holcroft, of the steamer Fawn, has informed the editor of the Louisville Courier, that on Sunday morning last (31st) Mr. Dixon was slowly improving, and that he was considered by his physicians as out of danger.

An immense multitude listened to Mr. Lincoln's eulogy upon Mr. Clay, at Louisville on Wednesday last week. A very eloquent address, and we think that its length precludes our publishing it.

The Democratic Barbecue at Harrodsburg, on Monday last, was on the Hydropathic order, as it rained all day. The gloomy, lowering clouds were only the "shadows of coming events," and were well calculated to depress the spirits of our Democratic friends. We wonder how much majority Mercer county will give for Gen. Scott?

Will our neighbor of the Ploughboy answer the following questions:
Did Gen. Pierce while in Congress introduce a single important bill, or make a speech on one? If so, what bill was it, and which side did he take?
Was he ever three hours on any battle-field in Mexico, and was he ever nearer than "within a few feet of the most dangerous fire of the enemy?"
Come, neighbor, no "backing out." Illustrate your candidate's boasted, civil and military prowess, by telling us the whens and wheres, and all about it.

FATAL DUEL NEAR LEXINGTON.—A duel was fought near Lexington on Tuesday evening last, between Mr. Benjamin Johnson, of that city, and a Mr. White, of Woodford county. The weapons used were double-barreled shot-guns, and the distance forty paces. Mr. White fell dead at the first fire. We have not learned how the difficulty originated, nor have we heard whether any arrests have been made.

Mr. Gregory, a Whig candidate for Congress in Indiana, has had to pull the noses of two lying, abusive Locofoco editors recently. He serves 'em right.

Gen. Scott left Louisville for Cincinnati, on Monday last. As the distinguished guest of Kentucky, he has been treated by Kentuckians in a manner which reflects much credit upon our State and people. But they will do more for him. In November next, they give him a majority which will show how much they appreciate his services to the country, and how much they esteem and value him as one of the greatest living men, in every respect.

Senator Whitcomb, of Indiana died at New York on the 4th.

Gen. Scott's reception at Cincinnati was a grand affair.

MR. WEBSTER'S POSITION.—The N. Y. Express says that Daniel Webster will soon relieve himself and friends from the embarrassment caused by the use of his name for the Presidency. The Express evidently speaks adversely.

Cuba.—The excitement at Havana. The fears of a revolution are becoming greater daily. Arrests are constantly being made. Facella, a suspected editor, was garroted on the 25th ult.

Hogs.—The butchers of Louisville are paying 4½c for slop-fed and 4½c for corn-fed hogs. Packers are offering $3.50 gross, but farmers are asking higher rates.

There have been 12 deaths from cholera at Bardonia—most of them negroes. No new cases since Thursday last.

CHOLERA.—There were five deaths from cholera occurred at the St. Louis Hospital last week.

ANOTHER NEGRO STAMPEDE.—On Saturday or Sunday night last, says the Maysville Eagle, some thirty-two slaves, the property of citizens of Mason and Bracken counties, made their escape across the Ohio River. Three of them, captured some thirty-five miles back of Ripley, have since returned; but owing to the facilities for flight afforded in Ohio, the probability is that the residue will make good their escape.

A street fight took place in Maysville on Thursday last week, between the Rev. Mr. Gunley and Mr. Reid, both of that city. The two met on the street and commenced a political argument at which the parties waxed warm and warmer, until they came to blows. The clergyman was badly bruised in his face and hands.

OHIO!—At the races over the Nashville course on Wednesday last, a horse named Frank Pierce was badly beaten. Where is Amos Kendall and his coveys?

Gen. Scott at Circleville.—Evidence of his kind-heartedness.—The Cleveland Herald says it has a dispatch which states that at Circleville, a large number of persons assembled to welcome Gen. Scott, and he returned their welcome with a brief and happy speech. Yesterday morning he drove out to see Mr. Fellers, the German who was injured by the premature explosion of the cannon at Columbus, and gave him $30. Afterwards on hearing of the death of the unfortunate man, he sent his widow a check for $400.

THE DEMOCRACY'S NEW WAY TO BEAT A GENERAL.—Hon. Mr. Lincoln, in a speech made at Springfield, Illinois, suggests that the Democrats having failed to beat Harrison, in 1840, by calling him an "old granny," and Taylor, in 1848, by calling him a man without political principles, a mere fighter and an "old fool," are now trying to defeat Scott by running against him a General of such contemptible history and achievements, as to be a burlesque upon all military renown or pretensions. The idea is rich in humor, and is naturally suggested, if not altogether warranted, by the selection of such a General (!) as Franklin Pierce.

LOUISVILLE ITEMS.—A little boy was killed one day last week by falling from a pile of lumber on Jefferson street.
F. Gormann, a beer-house keeper, committed suicide on Sunday night by shooting himself. Cause, delirium tremens.
Henry Thomas was found dead at his residence on Tuesday morning. Intemperance, the cause.
Patrick Perkins was instantly killed at the upper railroad depot on Tuesday last, and another man seriously wounded by a brick wall falling on them.
The Gas difficulty has been settled, and the city is again lighted.
The new Catholic cathedral was dedicated on Sunday last. Tickets of admission were $1 each.

OREN.—The Courier of Monday, says: "A chap was most lustily shouting 'hurra for Pierce,' on Third street last night. Some persons, who were curious to see a Pierce man, procured torches, (the gas being all out) and after a patient search, found him lying on the flat of his back in the gutter—a fit emblem."
The Democracy of the Louisville district, met in Convention on Saturday last, and nominated Robt. J. Ward, Esq., of Louisville as their candidate for Congress. The nominee declined the honor, and they afterwards chose Dr. R. J. Breckinridge, Jr., of the same city, who has also declined, not being eligible on account of age.

OLD AND NEW DEMOCRACY.—The Frankfort Commonwealth, in order to prove that the Democracy of the present day and the Democracy of 25 years ago are "no more alike than sugar and salt," introduces the following Democratic ticket of Fayette county, Kentucky in 1829. It will be seen that the party has entirely changed front since the palmy days of Old Hickory, and have deserted all the cherished principles of that old Hero. The ticket is copied word for word:

JACKSON.
THE TARIFF.
INTERNAL IMPROVEMENT,
THE PEOPLE'S RIGHTS.
"Fremont, cheer the Hickory Tree,
In storm its boughs have sheltered thee;
O'er Freedom's land its branches wave,
'Twas planted on the Lion's grave."

FOR CONGRESS,
BENJAMIN TAYLOR,
FOR STATE LEGISLATURE,
MCALLA-PAYNE-BUNT.
Here, says the Commonwealth, we see in 1829 the Democracy went for Jackson—the Tariff—Internal Improvements, and the People's Rights. Now they go for Pierce, Free Trade, against Internal Improvements, and for a special glorification of the veto power. In reference to the tariff and internal improvements, they are utterly opposed now to what they then advocated and flouted upon their banners.

WILL NOT THE SOUTH LISTEN TO THIS.—Hon. B. F. Butler, the Attorney General of Mr. Van Buren's administration, the author of the Buffalo Abolition platform in 1840, and the most influential of all the supporters of Gen. Pierce in the State of New York at this time, expressly declares in his late letter to the Hon. S. P. Chase, that he "regards the support of Gen. Pierce by the free-soilers as the sure means of securing all that yet remains unaccomplished of the measures enumerated in the Buffalo platform."

Julian, the Abolition candidate for the Vice Presidency, and C. M. Clay, made speeches at Maysville last week. They both denounced Gen. Scott as a supporter of the compromise, and declared him unworthy, because he was pledged to maintain the fugitive slave law.—This Julian is the very same rascal who was elected to Congress by the Democrats of the 4th district in Indiana, three years ago, over a good Whig compromise man.

Gen. Cass declared in the Senate that he was, and always had been, "in favor of any reasonable River and Harbor bill"—the Chicago Convention letter and "noise and confusion" to the contrary notwithstanding. The Hardy County (Virginia) Whig asks what he thinks of Gen. Pierce's position on the same subject.

Counterfeit $50 bills in the Southern Bank of Kentucky are in circulation. They are said to be well executed.

The Richmond Whig says that history records that Gen. Pierce is not the only Hero who has fallen in battle. The same disaster befel Gen. Scott. At the storming of Fort George, the crumbling battlements came down upon him and prostrated him, but as General Culom most cogently and tartly remarked, "when down, he did not lie like an old soldier possum; but rose like a wounded lion, more terrible than ever."

A new Irish American paper, edited by an association of Irishmen, was to be started in New York city yesterday. It starts with a circulation of five thousand and is expected to run up in a week or two to double that number. It advocates protection to home industry, internal improvements and the election of General Scott.

Democratic Principles.
What are they? What measures do the party advocate? We learn that they are opposed to a National Bank; that they are opposed to a Tariff which shall protect American labor; that they are opposed to Internal Improvements; that they are opposed to the distribution of the proceeds from the sale of the public lands; in short that they oppose every measure that is now in agitation with respect to public policy. But what do they advocate? That's the question. Who will answer?

We want Gibbons, of the Ploughboy, to answer that question. Come, neighbor, wake up, put your hair out of your eyes, wipe your nose, and tell the gentleman of the Journal, and through him, "the rest of mankind," what principles the Democracy are advocating.

Who are the Friends of American Industry.
Where the Money goes to.—the following quantities of Railroad iron have been imported during the periods designated:

1850	70,000 tons.
1851	141,000 "
1852	175,000 "
	386,000

Probable cost, here, over nineteen millions of dollars. With a proper Tariff, every dollar of this money might have passed into the hands of American artisans and farmers.—[Exchange.]

GEN. PIERCE AT HOME.—Colonel Kilder, a prominent Democrat of New Hampshire, in a recent speech before a Democratic Club, in that State, used the following language in reference to Gen. Pierce:

"He is our neighbor—our friend—our own New England man. The Van Buren, Preston King, and a great Majority of the leading 'Free-soil' men of '48 are for him. NONE NEED FEAR HIM. I have not yet met with the first Democrat who will not support him. He writes no silly letters."

GOOD NEWS FROM VIRGINIA.—The Charleston (Va.) Republican of the 29th ult., says:—
We are sorry that we have not room, this week, to give our readers the cheering news that we have of the prospects of carrying Virginia for Old Chippewa. The Scott fire is spreading in all directions. The Southwest is coming into line in grand style. Eastern Virginia is rousing up. A confidence is everywhere being diffused among the friends of Scott and Graham, that Virginia can be carried—and in the spirit of the Whigs of '76 they are resolving that it shall be carried for them. Let the word pass along the whole line from the Ohio to the Atlantic. VIRGINIA CAN AND SHALL BE REDEEMED. Virginia wants no more "Northern men with Southern feelings."

HON. WM. T. WARD
Will address the people on national politics, at Jamestown, Russell co. Friday, Oct. 8.
Monmouth, Wayne co. Monday, Oct. 11.
Somerset, Wednesday, Oct. 13.
Waynesburg, Lincoln co. Thursday, Oct. 14.
Stanford, Friday, Oct. 15.
Danville, Saturday, Oct. 16.
Liberty, Casey co. Monday, Oct. 18.
Campbellsville, Taylor co. Wednesday, Oct. 20.
Greensburg, Green co. Friday, Oct. 22.

Whig papers in the State please copy, and the friends in each county give notice.

THE PROSPECT.
We copy from the Louisville Journal of Tuesday, the following article. The Democrats may abuse and denounce Prentice as much as they please, but it will not injure him, and all will acknowledge that he is seldom far wrong in his calculations.

The Presidential election is to take place in four weeks. The time is very short, yet we fully believe that the Whigs will be prepared for it. We confidently believe that their preparations will be equal to any ever made in any past canvass.

Last week, we spoke encouragingly of the prospects of the Whig party throughout the Nation. We can now speak still more encouragingly than we did then.—We are convinced, that during the lapse of the seven last days, the Whigs have been increasing in enthusiasm and in numbers in nearly every State of the Union.

Never before since we first took an interest in political matters did we know a party gather as much strength and confidence in a single month as the Whig party has gathered within the last month. A month ago, the Whig party everywhere seemed to have misgivings as to the result of the election, but now a presentiment of Gen. Scott's election fills every Whig heart, and the whole country echoes with Whig shouts of anticipated triumph.

We shall not stop now to speak of the political signs presented by individual States. There are not, in the whole Union, more than three or four States from which all our intelligence is not of a most cheering and animating character. We are convinced that States will go for Scott, in which, all very recently, the Whigs were scarcely expected to make a struggle. Our well settled opinion is that the Whig victory of '52 will much surpass that of '48—that we shall sweep over the country as resistlessly as we did in 1840.

On the downward passage of the American Star from Maysville a political vote was taken which, among the gentlemen, resulted as follows: Scott 8½; Pierce 24; Hale 4. The ladies insisting on their rights cast a vote also, which stood for Scott 13; Pierce 4.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—A despatch from Paris, Ky., under date of the 29th ult., says:—
A very destructive fire occurred at Cincinnati last night, which caused great consternation here, many of the citizens of that town being there attending the fair, and numbers of them started home. We learn that eight stores, five livery stables, and many private dwellings were destroyed.
The fire was the work of an incendiary.
The above despatch is an exaggeration. The Mills House, a large livery stable, a blacksmith shop, and two dwellings only, were burned.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

AN APPRENTICE
To learn the art of printing will be taken Tribune Office. It is necessary that he should know how to read and write, and must come well recommended. None other need apply.

TAVERN STAND FOR SALE.—We invite attention to the advertisement for the sale of the Tavern Stand in this place, now occupied by Mr. V. H. SMITH. This stand is a very good one. The House is conveniently arranged for a hotel, and contains all the necessary furniture, which can be purchased with it. To an enterprising business man, this sale offers a rare chance to make money, for money can certainly be made with this tavern.

NEW CASH STORE.—Messrs Rothschild & Sirous have opened a large and complete stock of Fall and Winter Goods, in our city, which they propose to exchange for Cash, on very favorable terms to those who trade with them. See advertisement.

TO THE LADIES.—We ask the attention of the ladies to the advertisement of Miss Fennell and Mrs. Shindler, who have for sale a beautiful assortment of Bonnets, Ribbons, &c. They are both experienced Milliners, and will do all work entrusted to them to the entire satisfaction of their customers.

KENTUCKY MEDICAL SOCIETY.—The Secretary of this association gives notice that its second annual meeting will be held at Louisville on the third Wednesday of the present month. "The physicians throughout the State are cordially invited to attend, and all wishing to become members, who may not find it convenient to leave home, are requested to send their applications, enclosing $2. (admission fees) to R. C. Sneed, Secretary, Frankfort, Kentucky."

For Liberia.
The emigrants going from Kentucky, (unless otherwise specially directed,) will meet in Louisville, on Monday, the 13th day of December, 1852, to embark for New Orleans, whence the vessel will sail on the 20th of December, for Liberia. Emigrants will inquire for Rev. A. M. COWAN, Agent of Kentucky Colonization Society, at Cassidy & Hopkins, Main street Louisville.

TOWN PROPERTY FOR SALE.
THE subscriber, desirous to square up accounts with everybody, will offer for sale THE TAVERN STAND.
In the town of Danville, Boyle county, Ky., at present occupied by himself, together with Belonging to the same, the most of which is new and good.
Any person desirous of engaging in the business, would do well to take hold of this establishment, as a location possessing the same advantages is hard to find anywhere. The House is situated in the business part of the town, and is entirely detached from any other buildings, and is within 300 yards of the terminal depot of the Lexington and Danville Railroad. There is on the lot
A Good New Stable.
And all necessary Out-buildings; 3 good large Cellars, which always keep dry.
A location could not be selected offering greater inducements to any one wishing to engage in the business of keeping a Public House—situated in one of the richest and healthiest portions of the State, a good run of custom established, together with many other advantages which can be seen by those wishing to purchase. I deem it useless to say more, but invite those who wish to obtain a good situation to call on me to call and examine for themselves. A good bargain can be had. For terms in the above property, either with or without the Furniture, until Monday, October 18, 1852.
And if not sold before that day, will, on that day, be sold at Public Sale, to the highest bidder.
The Terms will be liberal, and made known on the day of sale, or to those wishing to purchase privately, and will be such that the purchaser can make most of the purchase money with the property, before he has to pay it.

For the Kentucky Tribune.
The South-Western Railroad.

A VISIT TO TENNESSEE.

ROCKSVILLE, Ky., Sept. 25, 1852.
MESSRS. ZIMMERMAN & SON:

Gentlemen—We have just returned from a trip down in Tennessee, on the line of the Southwestern Railroad, and take this method of making known to the friends of that enterprise its state of progress in Tennessee. A Board of Directors was organized some weeks ago, on the line from McMinnville to the Kentucky State line, and Judge A. C. Cullum elected President. After the organization of the Board, an order was made directing a survey from McMinnville to Livingston, via Sparta, and a committee appointed to secure an engineer. Owing to some disappointments, the committee had not, up to the time of our visit there, secured an engineer; they thought, however, that one would be at work on the line in the course of ten days. The Board of Directors in Tennessee have not ordered a survey beyond Livingston, because they desired a conference and consultation with the Board of Directors of the Lexington and Danville Railroad as to the proper point of intersection on the State line. They are desirous of selecting a point on the State line easy of access to both the Kentucky and Tennessee companies, and in order to do so, they propose acting in concert and in connection with the Kentucky Board. The people of Tennessee, along the proposed route, are zealously engaged in carrying forward the great enterprise. The counties of Overton and White have voted a tax of $100,000, and taken a considerable amount of stock by individual subscription—which, with the $80,000 per mile given them by the State of Tennessee, is almost a certain guarantee that the portion of the road lying in that State will be made. May we not say the same of Kentucky?

There will be a Mass Meeting of the friends of the road at the Tennessee State line, (near Overstreet's) on the 21 day of October, at which the President and a large number of the Directors of the Tennessee Board will be present. It is desired that the Kentucky Board, or such of them as can conveniently be present, will do so, and confer with the Tennessee Board in devising ways and means for making this great northern and southern connection.

The people of this (Cumberland) county are determined to leave nothing undone to secure this much desired end. A vote will be taken on the 1st of October, on a proposition to tax the county 3 per cent. on its taxable property, payable in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years, and the friends of the measure are sanguine of success.

Very respectfully,
JOS. S. BLEDSOE,
T. T. ALEXANDER.

Latest from California.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.
The Steamship United States, Captain W. C. Berry, arrived at this port to-day from Aspinwall, with 361 passengers. She brings San Francisco dates to the 15th, and from the Isthmus to the 15th.

The steamer Pioneer of Vanderbilt's line from San Juan del Sur for San Francisco, was lost at Simon's bay on the 17th August. The passengers all saved and taken to their destination.

The shipment of gold dust by the steamer California from San Francisco to Panama, amounted to $2,132,000. Some few cases of cholera had occurred at San Francisco.

A destructive fire had occurred at Greka, on the 25th August. Loss $50,000.

The mining news is very encouraging from all parts of the country. In the vicinity of Sonora the yield is from one to five ounces of gold to a man.

A lump of nearly pure gold had been taken out near Sacramento which weighed 25 pounds, and valued at from $4,000 to $6,000.

Much inquiry is made for farming lands, and is thought that a large portion of the emigrants would turn their attention to farming.

The steamer "Boston" was burned at San Antonio on the night of the 25th.

The Winfield Scott, on her last arrival at San Francisco, was seized for carrying an excess of passengers, and released on giving $27,000 bonds.

Dates from Oregon are to the 21st August. News unimportant. Numerous emigrants were arriving. News from the Isthmus interesting.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31st. Business for the past fortnight has been decidedly improved on the previous two weeks, and there have been several heavy speculative movements. Flour has largely advanced, with several heavy sales, to arrive. Prices of grain have been fluctuating with a slightly downward tendency. Pork has been in brisk demand, and prices are fully sustained.

Batter depressed, and sales have been made as low as 32 cts per pound.

News from the fishing grounds.

GLOBEPOSTER, September 27.
The fishing schooners John, James Mary Houston, and Leonard McKensie, have arrived from the fishing grounds. They report several additional interruptions by the British cruisers, but no further seizures except the schooner Caroline Knight of Newburyport on the 11th inst., about ten miles north of Prince Edwards Islands.

It is estimated that the returns of Mackereel this year will fall short at least one half of the usual average. Taking the estimate from the catch during the same period last year.

The owners of the Catharine Knight, have received intelligence from the Captain. He states that there were other vessels inside of his at the time of the seizure, and had no thought of trespassing on his bidden ground. He is further of opinion that the value of the vessel and cargo comprising 238 bbls of mackerel, was the cause of the seizure.

The New Orleans Picayune says it has intelligence from the harvest planters in the State, that nearly one-third of the Cotton crop has been destroyed by rot and heavy rains.

Speech of Gen. Scott at Frankfort.

A Specimen of Military Eloquence.

We have not room to insert all the excellent speeches made by Gen. Scott at various places in our noble State, but content ourselves with publishing that delivered by the old chief at Frankfort. As a specimen of impromptu oratory, it cannot be excelled by any speaker. Gen. Scott's speeches are complete "soulers" to the Democratic cry of "he's only fit for the battle field." Let every one read this speech, and mark particularly his reference to the Union, and the impartiality with which he views and would act with both sections of the country:

—Fellow-Citizens and my fair Countrymen:

Happy indeed am I to find myself in your midst. It is a proud moment in my history, that in which I stand upon the threshold of the Capitol of Kentucky, surrounded by such a vast assemblage of her intelligent and patriotic citizens, and receive the spontaneous greeting thus extended to me through your eloquent organ, in whom I am proud to say I recognize an ancient and a valued friend. Need I say that all these events did my heart with delight? Need I say that my obligations to Kentucky are as great as my remembrances of Kentucky are fraught with gratification? Kentucky, Kentucky! Her State abounds with patriots and heroes, and prominently she stands among her sister States, from the time of Daniel Boone, through the era of Shelby and the glorious Scott. I mean Gen. Scott, the hero famed in the Revolutionary year down to my own time, down to the days when I had the honor and the advantage of standing side by side with Kentucky's valiant sons opposed to British regulars or to Mexican Myriads. Yes, Kentucky's sons have ever done their duty—have ever proved themselves equal to any emergency, and capable of contending with any troops in the world. It has been my lot to serve with them, among others, and never will I fail to bear witness to their valor and their discipline.

"I need not, however, refer to the deeds of your valiant sons in Mexico—deeds which are familiar to you all. I need not speak of that bloody field on which so many of your relatives were slain. I need not speak of Buena Vista, for one is here who was actively engaged on that occasion—he will speak of the zeal of Kentuckians upon that occasion—he will speak of the heroes who fell upon that glorious day. But, I may say with pride, that it has been my lot to serve upon other occasions with Kentucky's valiant sons. I may refer with a swelling heart, if with a sad heart, to her gallant Campbell, by whose side I fought, and whose eyes, alas! I closed with my own hand in death. But, why dwell upon these scenes? It does not need words of mine to prove that Kentucky is, unquestionably the first State in war—the first State in peace—and always the first in devotion to our glorious Union. That devotion pervades all classes of her citizens! It is evident in her soldiers and in her statesmen, and it is embodied in all its fervor and depth in the person of that most eminent of her sons, as he has left a blank in the councils of the nation. And who is there here, that does not love this glorious Union with as deep and lasting an affection? Not one. And I, too, am a humble servant and devotee of that Union. I too would stand firmly by her side, whether threatened by domestic traitors or by foreign foes. I have not, perhaps, the power to say that this Union shall not be dissolved while I survive, but I can say that it shall not be overthrown and leave me a survivor. To the latest hour of my life will I defend it, alike from Northern and from Southern fanatics. I say not this as an idle boast. I have said it in the hour of darkness and of peril, and therefore may I repeat it in these hours of peace, of enjoyment, and of prosperity.

But, my friends, I must conclude. For this reception I thank you all, my countrymen. And by this term, permit me to say, I include all classes—Democrats and Whigs—native born and adopted citizens—for I have no doubt men of all parties are here, who have come forward to welcome two old soldiers to your midst. Gen. Wool is a moderate Democrat, and I am not a bigoted or infatuated Whig. I may then address you all when I return you thanks, as I now do, sincerely and truly for your kindness. Thanks, my fellow citizens, thanks to one and all.

The course of this speech was interrupted by frequent and enthusiastic cheers. When General Scott concluded, Gen. Wool made a few happy remarks, of which we were unable to get a report, but which were warmly applauded. After this ceremony of reception was over, the distinguished soldiers were escorted to their lodgings at the Weisiger House, and subsequently to the Cemetery, to view the Military Monument and other improvements of the grounds—all of which they much admired.

Surgeon General Lawson having engagements requiring him to proceed immediately to Louisville, did not stop at Frankfort at all, nor participate in any of the proceedings of the reception. Gen. Scott is a man of most noble and prepossessing appearance and most affable and pleasant bearing. He looks like one of nature's noblemen, and he is. Every where his appearance and conversation excite the highest admiration and enthusiasm, and the track of his presence cannot fail to be marked by a very large vote for him on the 21 of November.

Contracts have been made by the dealers of Madison, for the delivery of some 115,000 head of hogs, all of which, says the Courier, will be killed and packed there. 98,000 is the greatest number that has ever been packed in that city in one season.

Hon. DANIEL WEBSTER has instituted a suit against the City of New Orleans for the recovery of $25,000, as a fee for legal services in the Gaines case.

Why is the wife of Gen. Pierce an ugly woman? Because faint heart never won fair lady.
